But it's reasonable to speak up for religious liberty, to advocate for vulnerable people whom we need the government's help supporting and to confront the corrosive cultural forces that undermine our society's stability. And so Israel has a great calling. They found the Lord to be right. The repentance God demands here is not a superficial rending of clothing but rather a true soul conversion—the heart circumcision that the Lord has always demanded Deut. Email someone my wishlist. By the way, Luke is the only gospel writer who gives the content of the message: cannot kill, commit adultery, steal, lie about neighbors, or covet their goods and spouses and expect to enter in communion with another, because these are all takings and only gift can bring about communion.
