The Pandyan empire is at its peak, its enemies subdued and its people at peace. If anything, the title may be a little off. The plot revolves around 2 central characters - Veera and Malik Kafur.

Throughout the book I had this exhilarating feeling of being propelled by two Publisher: Hachette India. There are extremely interesting characters which come across in his story - his friend Akshayan, step brother Sundar, love interest Sunanda who becomes his sister-in-law and wife Radhika. The author appeared to be in a hurry to complete the second half but worth reading. Veera comes back from Madurai, to see his lover, now the wife of Sundara, his sha India, fourteenth century.
