Student confusion may result. This is a list of subjects from the appropriate Study and Reference Guide that the student should have learned or be familiar with before the Preparatory Ground Instruction is given. Jumping and spinning are two things seniors are most likely to injure themselves doing. It also specifies how people will be assessed against the competency standard. You should not limit your teaching to the one level, or to any particular stage as some students may have the capacity to achieve skills at a higher level and others may develop at a slower pace. This means that agencies can provide a range of milestone types, including segment completion, execution, project, and performance.
