An Evening with David Sedaris. The book breaks down the stages of life for a bat and how they change. Join the fun with Brian Lies for a storytime with a "musical petting zoo. Learn how we rate. One of the parts I enjoyed most explained with diagrams all the way. A final page offers additional facts. It was standing room only as the house lights went out. And don't miss the edited concession sign, featuring "garlic flies" and "groundnuts". I had always liked to draw, though, and kept doing it just for fun. In the Illustrated Dune there is a drawing of the scene where Hawat "took a tiny tube, held it beside the Bat's head and chattered into the tube; then, lifting the creature high, he threw it upward.
