There are some good things. Overall, this book is real light and fun and definitely enjoyable.

And then she finds herself too far into the conversation to let him know who she is. I loved how this story started. She is clearly lonely, even if she wants to deny it, as her past has burned her and she is unwilling to open herself Unmasking Maya to the chance of love

And move on? As something that threaten to become a very big something. There are some good things. Overall rating No ratings yet 0.
