He points out seven similarities between the Pardoner and the Wife of Bath, among them the long prologues, a mysterious person in both tales, surprises for the young heroes, and so on. This is something that likely would have gone totally over my head without some extreme close reading. The chapter begins by explaining that Chaucer was writing during a time when the plague epidemic was causing much of the laity to question the intermediary power of the Church against an enigmatic God. Maximilian Bauer. Macbeth by William Shakespeare Book Analysis. Katharina Thomas. Bright Summaries. This essay has some considerable strengths and weak spots. In his next grouping, Taylor includes the Man of Law, the Wife of Bath, and the Merchant as tales that talk about ways of loving women.
