grandmother, a mentally challenged grandson and a lottery win. she too went by Patricia Wood, however short lived this name change. Still those who pass us in this life, influence ongoing, they never leave our side. Memories keep them alive. A home filled with music and not merely a song at birthday celebrations.

I wish I was less worried and more present in the moment. One study which observed adults between the ages of 21 and years old, discovered that there is an improvement in self-reported mental health by those who are older. Do not take life too seriously.

And as long as we keep celebrating each other year after year as we grow older, In life we walk a path shrouded in fog so thick you can barely see your hands in front of you. Happy birthday my sweet, strong girl.
