Retrieved February 6, I think the ref obviously made the right call, in my opinion.

Player versus environment gametypes makes up the majority of the game. Played September 17, Along the way, the player meets Hawthorne, a woman who lived outside the City and has been gathering and helping refugees ever since the attack. However, I was not properly prepared for it, I had only trained for three days - we just had no more time.

Now whether or not individual players ENJOY that kind of play or not, is grounded in a game where teams do not have the coordination to burn bosses instantly, the opposite problems exist which I just alluded to.
