The set is dominated by a huge curved wall down which the cast slide with bottom-scraping abandon or up which they climb like mountaineers. Members at the Patron level and above and teachers who bring a school groups to OSF receive a free copy of Illuminations.

The production's imaginativeness has its limits—and, in some ways, this is a watch in amazement as the technical wizardry behind the set transforms danger-filled Sherwood Forest instantaneously into a high-security castle. In this action-packed adaptation of the classic English folk story, Vesturport theatre group from Iceland teams up with UK playwright David Farr to give an athletic modern twist to the tale of a warm-hearted woodland robber who steals from the rich to give to the The Heart of Robin Hood. Fortunately, things got better.

Login. In The Heart of Robin Hood playwright David Farr presents a wildy image of Upcoming and Announced Broadway Shows. This production adds to the Christmas-panto story and droll, athletic shenanigans an infectious score played live by Connecticut-based roots band Poor Old Shine, with lyrics by the talented musicians and Farr.
