I wanted to see myself through his eyes, to see what it was to spank me with the crop for the first time. Shannon Delany Goodreads Author. Gagliani juggles lots of interrelated storylines to clue readers into past events in the lives of many of the characters as they were growing up- events which, of course, shape the future. With tongue firmly in cheek. Langley3. Shara is being republished by Scrybe Press and is due out at any time, the new edition will have additional material added. Plenty of background is provided on the US soldiers and even one of the Germans throughout the book. Despite the unimpressive role of the holiday, distracting sex passages, and confusing ending, Howl-o-ween is worth a look. The intimate scenes were well-written. It's a shorter novella but that doesn't mean it's missing any elements of a great read. I received a free copy of this book via Booksprout and am voluntarily leaving a review.
